STRIKES STIFLE AGAINST RAIL WHILE LEAD-ING IN EMPIRE CITY RACE.

Danger Mark and Royal Meteor Finish First and Second in the Winged Foot Handicap-Guy Fisher Is Repeater.

New York, July 12.—Danger Mark and Royal Meteor, both from the Newcastle Stable, finished first and second in the Winged Foot Handicap, the feature at Yonkers today. Royal Meteor was an added starter, Seth, one of the overnight entries having been scratched and Royal Meteor substituted. The Newcastle Stable pair ruled first choice, and after following the pace of Quincy Belle both came away at the end to take first and second with plenty to spare.

at the end to take hist and second performance spare.

Guy Fisher repeated his recent good performance when he outgamed Starbottle to win by a nose. Restigouche and Nimbus, both fancied in this field, forced all the pace, but both of them quit badly in the stretch and were unpiaced. The race run by Starbottle was one to suggest that the Belmont three-year-old is rapidly coming to good form and it is predicted that he will give a good account of himself at Saratoga, where he has several engagements.

himself at Saratoga, where he has several engagements.

Cherryola was winner of the race for three-year-old fillies and Danfield, always rated a sprinter. lasted in the mile and a sixteenth race to beat Lad of Langden and Ardri. In the race won by Cherryola, Mexoana, while leading by rour lengths, hit her stifle on the inside rail and at once dropped out of the running. Creevy, who had the mount, had his left leg badly bruised.

Twenty-eight of the string of James R. Keene were shipped to Saratoga today. Seneca, Tripping, Infatuation, Jest and Twickenham remain at Yonkers in charge of S. W. Streett.

Saratoga is to revive the field stand this season, with a charge of $1 for entrance to that enclosure. John E. Madden today sold the two-year-old filly Thrifty to R. E. Watkins.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Montreal Jockey Club will give $500 purses for the overnight races at the fall meeting at Blue Bonnets.

Hugh Penny and Frank McCabe have put in an appearance at Empire City after a Canadian circuit campaign.

G. B. Ott's good filly, Golden Egg, probably will go east for the Saratoga meeting after a brief rest at Lexington.

The Wainwright horses reached Empire City from Kentucky in good condition, notwithstanding the high temperature under which the trip was made.

James Johnson, who handled cross-country horses on the New York and Canadian courses a few sea-sons ago, is training a small stable in the City of Mexico.

J. B. Respess' decision to abandon his proposed eastern trip was due to the fact that Wintergreen, the mainstay of his stable, pulled up lame after a recent work-out at Latonia.

Merrick work-out at Latonia.

Merrick went lame in his last race and it will require some time to patch up the consistent old Golden Garter gelding, according to owner Milan. For a cripple Merrick is certainly a wonderful campaigner.

Fifteen yearling thoroughbreds from John E. Madden's Hamburg Place have reached Saratoga, where they are to be handled by their owner. They were broken before they left the farm, but they have never been tried for speed.

W. F. Schulte's Gliding Belle has been blistered at Empire City track for a bowed tendon on the off foreign. It is the intention of trainer Brooks to return Gliding Belle to the Schulte farm at Louisville before the end of the Yonkers meeting.

Bob Flick, who rode prominently for the late G. W. (Bishop) Poole on western tracks, is foreman for W. P. Fine, owner of Glorio and other horses. About two years ago Flick went to Mexico and scored a number of successes for the American trainer, Fred Carter, at the City of Mexico.

The work of cutting down the historic hill of the Lexington track is proceeding and by fall the obstruction of the view from the grandstand to the stretch turn will be removed. To accomplish this required removing fully three feet of dirt in the cen-ter field and this is utilized by filling up the holes and hollows all over the enclosure. The track is also being resolted and it is believed that it will be faster and safer in another year than ever before.

faster and safer in another year than ever before. For refusing to deliver the filly, Lady McDowell, to Edward Corrigan after that horseman had claimed her out of a race at Salt Lake City Monday, the officials of the Utah Jockey Club ruled off the turf Perry Reed, owner and trainer, together with the filly. Other horses owned by Mr. Reed, who comes from Nebraska, include Goldflight, Alert Girl, My Ella. Bride's Boy and Alert Ella. Jockey Stewart had previously been ruled off for the unsatisfactory manner in which he had ridden the filly in the race out of which she was claimed.

GEORGE W. BERRY RETURNS WEST.

New York, July 12.—George W. Berry, who brought A. B. Spreckels' two-year-olds, Aldrian, Antenor, Edda, Indora and Kormak, east in the spring and sold them with some other youngsters at good prices, has returned to California. There are a lot of thoroughbreds at Mr. Spreckels' Napa Stock Farm that require the attention of the farm manager. The stallions at Napa are Voorhees, Solitaire II., Big Chief and Puryear D., and because of the successes of Aldrian and Kormak this season Mr. Spreckels intends to give Puryear D. a better chance than be has had heretofore, Puryear D. was a son of Deceiver, developed and campaigned by the late Hardy Durham, of Kentucky. He got a cracking good horse in Dr. Leggo, winner of both California Derbys and also the Burns Handicap.

MANAGER HACHMEISTER'S VIEW.

Concerning his eastern trip, Manager John Hachmeister of the Latonia track is quoted as saying: "I am going to New York shortly to confer with Col. Matt J. Winn and others interested in Kentucky tracks and it probably will then be settled as to what dates Louisville and Latonia will ask of the Kentucky State Racing Commission. I am not in favor, of meetings of too long duration, but at that the horsemen should have plenty of opportunity to win some money with their horses the coming fall, and I believe Louisville and Latonia both will race for as long a period as the commission will sanction. As, for Latonia, we will stand whatever the governing board of racing in Kentucky thinks best for the sport."

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS

Last year for the first time in his long career on the turf Sam Hildreth enjoyed the felicity of being the chief winning owner of the United States. The racing of the past month has sufficed to move him up to the head of affairs again and he now has a slight advantage over his closest rival of 1909, James R. Keene. August Belmont enjoys the smiles of good fortune this year and is a good third, much higher up in the winning list than he has been at a similar time in the turf campaign for many years past. H. G. Bedwell is still fourth, but unless he secarces relief from his Latonia ruling will soon be passed by those owners hard after him, R. F. Carman, R. T. Wilson, Jr., Barney Schreiber and the Newcastle Stable. The thirty leading money winners and their stable records are now:

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE SEAGATE STAKES

Another of the Brighton Beach stakes adopted by the Empire City Racing Association, the Seagate, is an event to be remembered by Chicago patrons of racing, for it was in this race that the last winner of the American Derby, the ill-fated Highball, croke down so irretrievably that he had to be destroyed. It is not a race of long history, but its conditions sufficed to attract good horses and it has been won by such first magnitude stars of racing as Ethelbert, Gold Heels, Sir Huon and Charles Edward. The latter in his year gave in the Seagate one of the most amazing displays of high-class speed ever witnessed, covering its mile and an eighth in 1:50%, with 126 pounds up, and winning in a canter by six lengths. Naturally Charles Edward was one of the fastest horses ever bred in America and but for being cursed with infirm forelegs would probably have done things in a racing way almost beyond belief. The record of the Seagate is as follows:

TWO AMERICAN VICTORIES

WHITNEY HORSES WIN TWO STAKE RACES AT NEWMARKET SECOND JULY MEETING.

New Castle Defeats Artisan and Canonite in the Beaufort Stakes and Hillside Takes the Spring Hall Plate.

London, Eng., July 12.—At Newmarket today, the first day of the Newmarket Second July meeting, H. P. Whitney's chesthut colt New Castle, 3, by Meddler—Homespun, won the Beaufort Welter Handicap of ten sovereigns each for starters with 300 sovereigns added, at seven-eighths of a mile for three-year-olds and upward. P. Nelke's four-year-old bay colt Artisan, by Eager—Handleraft, was second and A. P. Cunliffe's four-year-old bay colt, Canonite, by Cerasus—Ballistite, was third. Thirteen horses ran.

Mr. Whitney scored another victors in the Section by Cerasus—Ballistite, was tund. Factor an.

Mr. Whitney scored another victory in the Spring Hall Selling Plate of 200 sovereigns for three-year-olds and upward over the Chesterfield course at five furious, his four-year-old bay gelding. Hillside, by Hamburg—Morningside, winning, with L. Neumann's seven-year-old bay horse, Nero, by Eager—Firelight, second and Lord Howard de Walden's five-year-old bay horse, Kilcathry, by Isinglass—Kilkenny, third. The race had eleven starters.

While Mr. Whitney's stable has not been fortunate enough so far to win any of the greater prizes of the English turf, it has done very well this year and the ruces won yesterday will bring its earnings for the year to date close to the $30,000 mark, much more than stood to its credit at the same time last year. New Castle is the colt that brought the banner price of the yearling sales in this country in 1908, $10,700. So far he has only shown well at a mile and shorter distances, but has proved himself a very fast colt up to his limit. As the Meddlers generally do, he is likely to improve as he grows older and may do better things than he did yesterday.

PASSING OF THE NEGRO JOCKEY.

What has become of all the negro jockeys? A few years ago it was no uncommon thing to see four or five in every race. Many of them became celebrites. Isaac Murphy was accounted as good a rider as this country ever saw. On Salvator he won the Suburban, beating Cassius by a head. Murphy also rode Salvator when he beat Tenny in a match race. Murphy was called "the colored Archer" for the reason that both the English jockey and the American negro were smarvelous judges of paee. Murphy also rode for J. B. Haggin and all the prominent stables racing in the south and east. He died some time ago.

Tony Hamilton, another celebrated negro jockey, was brought out by William Lakeland. Hamilton died in Rassia. His home was in Brooklyn.

"Monk" Overton, famous for his great ability in the homestretch, rode for Edward Corrigan. Overton owns a saloon in Chicago.

Willie Simms, a mulatta, rode for the late M. F. Dwyer: also for Dwyer and Richard Croker in England about the year 1892.

Winkfield rode the great McChesney for S. C. Hildreth. This horse is now in the stud in the Argentine Republic. McChesney always hated negroes—for that matter, hated anything black. It was often necessary to blindfold the horse before an when as a two-year-old at Washington Park, Chicago, he was bumped and knocked down by a black colt. He hit a fence post and was knocked out of training for the rest of the season. After that McChesney would never tolerate anything or anybody that was black. Once, after his morning exercise at New Orleans, he was returned to his stall to find that a black goat had strayed within. With his teeth the horse picked up Mr. Goat by the middle of the back and dropped him overboard. Aside from this peculiarity McChesney was always a good-tempered horse and even in this he was not vicious.

a good-tempered horse and even in this he was not vicious.

Pike Barnes was another notable among the negro jockeys. The popularity of the colored riders was largely due to the fact that they were brought to the east and north by owners and trainers when most of the race horses were bred in the south. The negro is a natural and close friend of the thoroughbred. But the disappearance of negro jockeys is not so well understood. Some horsemen say that the white boys have driven them away by threats of fouling on the track and by fighting and other uncomfortable methods. Certafuly of lafe there has been 2 decided paucity of colored riding material.

OLAMBALA'S CHARACTERISTICS.

New York, July 12.—Olambala is perhaps a bigger and heavier horse today than he was when Thomas Healey first put him in training last spring. Horsemen who have paid close attention to his progress estimate that he has gained 100 or 150 pounds under training, and in every race in which he has started he has shown more early speed than any one suspected he possessed. On a really fast track he prohably could run a mile in 1:38 or thereabouts, provided some fast horse cut out a fast early pace, but one mile is not his distance. He has an awkward way of throwing his feet about for the first three-quarters of a mile in all of his races. He does not fatten down and begin to run until he has covered five or six furlongs and felt the sting of the whilp. But when thoroughly aroused he begins to run smoothly and is a veritable whirtwind. Ben Holladay in his prime was not a better cun horse tian Olambala is today, according to the opinions of some good judges.

Archibald, the jockey from the far west who piloted Olambala in the Suburban and Brighton, declares that Olambala is the gamest horse he ever rode. He says that the colt seems to labor hard in the early part of his races, but that a touch of the whilp arouses him and causes him to flatten down in earnest. Olambala is not a horse of whims and caprices. He does not pin his ears and sulk when jostled about. Olambala will race through any gap into which his rider may steer him and Archibald is willing to bet that he will beat to the finish any horse he hooks up with at the head of the homestretch.

TALK OF FALL RACING AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., July 12.—It is likely that the Louisville and Latonia tracks will make applications to the Kentucky State Racing Commission at its next meeting for fall racing dates. It has not been decided as yet whether or not there will be fall racing in Lexington. The majority of the directors of the Kentucky Association, however, have expressed themselves in favor of a short meeting to follow the close at Latonia.

HUMOR OF THE TURF.

Henry Simons, veteran of the running and trotting turf, has been a full guy many a time. Largely because he cannot keep a secret. He was a victim the oftier day when La Reine Hindoo_was a good thing at Latonia. D. Hammond, the owner, knew of Henry's reputation as a disseminator of information and naturally selected him as the victim. Henry has a liniment, and if he prides himself for anything that he has ever had or done, it's the liniment. Hammond asked Simons if he knew of a good liniment for a bowed tendon. Did Henry know? Sure, and he had stuff to make a tendon with a knot in its traight as a die. Hammond informed him that La Reine Hindoo had a tendon thusly affected and Henry promised to give him some of the treasured stuff.

Reine Hindoo had a tendon thusly affected and stuff.

At the track there was quite a demand for La Reine Hindoo. Henry stood around the auction booth and saw the price against the mare dwindle to even money. He smiled to think that this mare had a bowed tendon, and that he was the only man on the race track to know it. He saw one of his friends bidding on the mare and he could not stand around and see the money burned up, so be imparted the information, and the man passed La Reine Hindoo up. When Henry say the mare lead trom start to finish and win by a half dozen lengths disappeared.

Over at the old Newport track Henry turned up one day with a similar story. He was in the ring, and he saw Sir Christopher backed from 40 to I down to 15 without a dollar being bet. He bunted up Manager Frank Fowler and said, "you haven't a chance to run this track with a lot of pinheads making book for you. Why, they won't take a dollar on Sir Christopher. It took over an hour this morning to get him out of his stall. Why, that horse is stove up so badly that the Humane Society ought, to be notified. It's a shame to run a horse like that. If I had a million dollars anyone could take it from me if Sir_Christopher will get anything." He rolled home, and once again Henry was missing.—Chrelmati Enquirer.

Heard a: Latonia. Scene: The betting shed: handicapper, with dope book in hand, leaning against an iron support. He turned page after page and then closed the book with a bang.

"Can't separate the bunch," said he. "No one can get them apart."

A couple of turfmen were within hearing distance of the monologue, and one said to the handicapper: "Just think of the difference between you and starter Murray, You can't get them apart, and he can't get them together,"

Before a recent sale of two year-olds in the pad-dock at Grayesend a wag met "Father Bill" Daly and remarked.

"Mr. Daly, what do you think of the meteorological conditions today?"

"I'll tell you," replied the Sage of Hartford grimly. "Anything that Tom Welsh sends into the sales ring isn't worth a copper. He never lets go of a good one."

After the finish of the Mermaid Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, in which Amelia Jenks beat the 1 to 15 favorite, Ocean Bound, largely as a result of Jockey Butwell's carelessness, dapper, suave George Wheelock looked rather gloomy. It was only a few minutes previous that Mr. Wheelock had walked over to Bill Cowan and in low tones murnured, "I but the wouldst like to wager you $12,000 that Ocean Bound wins the heat."

"I hate to part with $1,000," answered Mr. Cowan, "but as you have afways been a friend of mine you are on at the prevailing quotation of 1 to 12." Mr. Wheelock then retired to the stand to see Ocean Bound win. Sam Hildreth was likewise infatuated with Ocean Bound, and to win a paltry $500 he separated himself from $6,000.

Said trainer Sam Darling to Lord Rosebery, after Nell Gow's defeat in the Derby: "He was beaten coming up the hill, my lord." "And down the hill," added his lordship.

PULKA BENEFITED BY REST.

New York, July 12.—James Hewitt has returned from Canada with his Ogden three-year-old, Pulka. Pulka was the only horse of class Mr. Hewitt had on the Canadian circuit and as he was not in condition to race to his best form his owner did not gather much. Pulka was injured in a race at Pimlico early in the spring and Mr. Hewitt did not care to hurry him. But the colt's recent rest has benefited him and he will, Mr. Hewitt believes, show his good form in races hereabouts.
